How each number is worked out

Gross margin (P&L)

Gross profit ÷ revenue. All technician wages and on-costs included; overheads are not.

	Sep 2026	Aug 2026
Revenue (every job invoiced in the month)	$202,337	$179,007
Materials	($64,860)	($51,530)
Subcontractors	($13,200)	($9,300)
Technician wages	($54,600)	($54,600)
Gross profit	$69,677	$63,577
Gross margin (P&L)	34.4%	35.5%

Gross margin is before overheads (office wages, marketing, vehicles, rent and so on): it is not profit. Wages include all on-costs (super, payroll tax, workers' compensation, leave). Technicians are on salary, so a quiet month for jobs lowers gross margin even if every job is priced well.

Cost to win a customer

Marketing spend ÷ new customers

	Sep 2026	Aug 2026
Marketing spend	$7,600	$8,400
New customers (first job ever)	47	41
Cost per new customer	$162	$205

Technician time on jobs

Hours charged to jobs ÷ hours available

	Sep 2026	Aug 2026
Hours charged to jobs (timesheets)	752.5 h	655.0 h
Technicians	7	7
Working days	22	20
Hours per day	7.6 h	7.6 h
Hours available	1,170.4 h	1,064.0 h
Time on jobs	64.3%	61.6%

August had one fewer working day for the Ekka show holiday. The rest is travel, training, quoting and waiting time.
